The Loch of the Yellow Fairy (Loch An't Sitheich-Buidth). Situated about three miles from the Loch of the White Fairy, near Loch Swein on the Sound of Jura. It has a mass of yellow water lilies in the centre with straggling groups of white lilies round. This loch is surrounded by hills with steep rocky sides and patches of purple heather, and round the margin is a fringe of brilliant bell or bog heather growing in thick clusters on the peaty banks.
